UNITED STATES TO VIRGINIA.

The Chair laid before the Senate a message from the Governor transmitting a communication from Dr. J. J. Moran, of Fairfax county, Va., who settle, adjust, and determine all debts or claims due the State of Virginia by United States except claims prior to 1812. After giving a detailed statement of the accounts Dr. Moran says All told the indebtedness of the United States to the State of Virginia amounts to $2,931,237,48. This amount is now available, and he believes, with proper effort, can be secured to the State at this session of Congress. In closing
